

Visual Anthropology, Media and Documentary Practices

Part-time Master of Arts

Faculty of History and Philosophy | University of Münster

Learn how media representations shape our world and apply this knowledge to your own research projects and media outputs.

Key Facts

 Duration & On-site Days	36 Months / 6 Semesters 50 On-site Days	 Location	Königsstraße 47 48143 Münster
 Degree	Master of Arts (M.A.) of the University of Münster	 Scope	120 ECTS 9 Modules
 Teaching Format	100 % On-Site	 Language	English

Curriculum

The three-year master program trains students in (1) theory and practice of visual anthropology, (2) the documentary arts (film/photography/installation), as well as (3) media culture and media anthropology. Conceptual and practical knowledge within these areas can be applied in academia, the arts, culture and media industries, as well as to social, applied, or educational media projects. Students study the theoretical and practical foundations of visual anthropology, they gain experience in film production, project development, and (audio-) visual installation.

Digital Information
Session on
September 18th,
2024

Tuition Fee

- > 13.500 € in up to three installments
- > as individual payment plan by arrangement
- > exempt from VAT pursuant to § 4 No.21 a (bb) UStG

Admission Requirements

- > A relevant undergraduate or first degree (e.g., Bachelor, Diploma, Master)
- > At least one year of professional work experience
- > English proficiency at level B2 according to the CEFR

Start Date and Deadline

- > November 2025
- > Application Deadline: March 31st, 2025

